Day 2 ITC Shared Review

Preparation for Feedback

- Are the chairs set in an ‘interaction triangle’?
- Have I explained what I plan to do?
- Have I negotiated the purpose of the feedback?
- Have I checked that my client is ready to start?
- Am I ready to receive my client’s initiatives?
- Have I micro-analysed the film?

Creating space for attuned dialogue

- Own hopes, beliefs, thoughts, motives and experience
- Naming, exploring, reflecting, appraising, challenging
- New views, ideas and possibilities appear

Co-creating new meanings, solutions, change

Exploring together in shared review

Deepening achieved by guider using film, naming, wondering and building on client’s initiatives and responses

At each turn you judge if you want to give information or give space or activate possibly using video-clip
